

October Tour Scavenger Hunt

Complete this scavenger hunt and contact Historic Salisbury Foundation for a prize!

Contact us at 704.636.0103 or director@historicsalisbury.org

1. Start the hunt at a house that means a lot to Historic Salisbury Foundation—we bought it in 1972. The house turned 200 years old this year! Bonus: Who is this house named after, and what was his profession?

What is the name of this house? _____

2. You may have heard that this house has a ghost cat, and it is a former Fulton Street Funeral Home!

What is the name of this house? _____

3. This Colonial Revival house on Bank Street was recently featured in Salisbury Magazine for its garden!

When was this house built? _____

4. Home to Thred Shed, the 1898 Bell Block Building is built to be very sturdy!

What is this building made out of? _____

5. Soon we will be able to take cooking classes and yoga classes at this building!

What kind of business was this building in 1905? _____

6. This next house is a beautiful bed and breakfast, and sometimes they have fresh baked scones for breakfast!

What is the name of this house? _____

7. This place has lots of mud and trucks right now, but soon it will be a place to run and play. We will even be able to have concerts here!

What is this place named after? _____

8. This clock was given to Salisbury by a jeweler from Winston-Salem, and stands proud at the square!

What time does it read right now? _____

9. Get in there and shop local—take a picture of yourself supporting one downtown store or restaurant of your choice!

10. Though you may have to drive to this one, it is worth every second! This house was originally built by a fireman for Southern Railway!

What is the name of this house? _____

The prize is a free book (of your choice), donated by Books Brothers. We have books for people of all ages, and they have all been thoroughly sanitized! They will be available via curbside pick up at 215 Depot Street in downtown Salisbury!

Be safe and have fun! Use this as a way to get outside, learn about Salisbury and safely practice social distancing.
